

2017 Proposed PCN Governance Framework

Presented by:

Michelle Tobias-Pawl – Practice Management Program, AMA

Andrea Atkins – Practice Management Program, AMA

Agenda

- How is this framework relevant?
- What has been the feedback so far?
- What are some key details and how does this impact you?
- What's Next?

What does the Proposed PCN governance framework and a destination wedding have in common?

- ✓ PCNs developing and evolving – JVA in place = Relationship is exclusive & committed
- ✓ Amending Agreement = Proposal
- ✓ Begin creating a framework as an integrated group = Begin planning the wedding with both families' input
- ✓ Decide on the proposed PCN Governance Framework = Decide on a destination wedding in Honolulu, Hawaii
- ✓ Communicate the details of the Framework to EDs, PCNs, Boards, and Physician members = Send the invite out to friends and family

What does the Proposed PCN governance framework and a destination wedding have in common?

- ✓ Respond to any questions pertaining to the Framework and the implications of it = Respond to any questions or issues raised by the invite or details of the destination
- ✓ Communicate updates that follow from issues raised. Prepare for the PCN physician vote = Communicate updates that follow from issues raised. Prepare for the number of guests coming
- ✓ Physician vote takes place and the future of the framework is confirmed = Embark on the journey and the wedding is set (will the bride and groom both say yes?)

Feedback to date

- Greater involvement in decisions
- Unified voice
- Primary Care as a Priority
- Proactive and Inclusive
- Is this really a vote?
- What are the risks?
- How much of a change is this?

Key Details – with the proposed governance framework...

What will Change?

- Zonal and Provincial committees
- Stakeholders at the committee levels
- Reporting structure
- Equity
- Influence

What will not Change?

- NPCs as a legal entity
- Legal Models
- JVA
- The number of PCNs in the province
- Physician Leads representing at the zonal level
- Your roles

What's Next?

- The Physician Leads Executive Updates
- PCN Physician Leads initiating plans within their respective PCNs
- PMP support
- Executive Director involvement
- The Vote!
 - Online voting from
May 14 – June 13, 2017

Will there be a happily ever after?

- Will the outcome be favourable?
- What if the bride and groom don't say 'I do?'
- Relationships take work!
- Success is up to all of us.

